People v. Hooker. 10PDJ062. January 11, 2011. Attorney Regulation. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved a Conditional Admission of Misconduct submitted by the parties and suspended Daynel L. Hooker (Wisconsin Attorney Registration No. 1033854) from the practice of law for a period of one year and one day, all but six months stayed upon the successful completion of a two-year period of probation with conditions, effective March 1, 2011. Respondent negligently engaged in a persistent pattern of inattention to court orders and Bankruptcy Code requirements in one client matter. Respondent also knowingly drafted wills for a client and her husband despite the fact she is only licensed to practice law in the State of Wisconsin. Her misconduct constituted grounds for the imposition of discipline pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.5 and Colo. RPC 8.5(a), and violated Colo. RPC 1.1, 1.3, and 5.5(a).
