

FEBRUARY 2026 COLORADO ATTORNEY BAR EXAMINATION TEST METHOD CHANGE REQUEST

Exam seating will be assigned based on an examinee's desired test method (computer or handwriting) for completing the Essay/PT portion of the exam on Day 1.

Make sure you review your application account and pay particular attention to the seating preferences you chose when filling out your bar exam application.

A request to change your testing method must be submitted to the Office of Attorney Admissions no later than January 16, 2026.

To submit a Test Method Change Request, send our office a communication using the Messaging Center in your application account portal to make your request. You may simply state "I want to change from handwriting to computer for Day 1 of the bar exam," or, "I want to change from computer to handwriting for Day 1 of the bar exam." Our office will respond with confirmation that the change has been made. Be mindful of laptop registration deadlines when considering a switch from handwriting to computer. Also read the Laptop Use Requirements and Instructions.

All Test Method Change Requests must be made in writing, using the Messaging Center within your application account portal.
