If the Board of Continuing Legal and Judicial Education has filed in the Colorado Supreme Court a Statement of Noncompliance because you have failed to meet Colorado's mandatory continuing legal education requirement, and you would like to avoid suspension or have been suspended and wish to be reinstated from the suspension, please follow the procedures below:

1. File with the Board the enclosed petition. If mailing in, please include two (2) copies. Address the petition to the Colorado Supreme Court and enclose a check for five hundred dollars ($500.00). If you filed a make-up plan or late affidavit, but did not fully comply, please reduce the amount paid for the make-up plan or late affidavit from the $500.00 petition fee.
2. The petition should state with particularity the ACCREDITED PROGRAMS of continuing legal education which YOU HAVE COMPLETED (including the dates of their completion, the name of the program's sponsor, the location of the program, and the number of credits you earned), that make up your deficiency.
3. Within fourteen (14) days after the receipt of an acceptable petition, the Board shall file the petition, accompanied by the Board's recommendation, with the Supreme Court.

PLEASE SEND ALL PETITIONS TO THE BOARD'S OFFICE AT THE ABOVE ADDRESS OR EMAIL TO CLEINFO@CSC.STATE.CO.US.
