

People v. Carla A. Anderson. 14PDJ005. March 24, 2014.

The Presiding Disciplinary Judge suspended Carla A. Anderson (Attorney Registration Number 15539) for ninety days. The suspension took effect on April 28, 2014.

Anderson violated Oregon RPC 3.1 for pursuing a frivolous claim, 4.4(a) for using means with no substantial purpose other than to embarrass, delay, harass, or burden a third person, and 8.1(a)(2) for failing to respond to a lawful demand for information from a disciplinary authority. On September 12, 2013, the Supreme Court of Oregon suspended Anderson from the practice of law in the State of Oregon for ninety days. The Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel sought the same discipline as that imposed by the Supreme Court of Oregon, and Anderson did not challenge the order imposed by the Supreme Court of Oregon.

In an order entering default and imposing reciprocal discipline, the Presiding Disciplinary Judge concluded that Anderson's misconduct constituted grounds for the imposition of reciprocal discipline in Colorado pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.21(e).
