

People v. Curry. 08PDJ097. March 27, 2009. Attorney Regulation. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved a Conditional Admission of Misconduct submitted by the parties and suspended Jill A. Curry (Attorney Registration No. 36371) from the practice of law for a period of one year, all stayed upon the successful completion of a two-year period of probation with conditions, effective March 27, 2009. Respondent pled guilty to Vehicular Assault in violation of C.R.S. §18-3-205(1)(b) (F4) and Assault in the Third Degree in violation of C.R.S. §18-3-204 (M1) following events that took place on January 19, 2008. The charge of Assault in the Third Degree was without any factual basis and was added as a result of plea negotiations. On the felony count, the district court imposed a fine of $2,000.00, and payment of fees and costs. On the misdemeanor count, the district court imposed a two-year period of probation, 200 hours of community service, and DUI treatment as recommended by probation. Respondent's misconduct constituted grounds for the imposition of discipline pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.5 and violated Colo. RPC 8.4(b) and C.R.C.P. 251.5(b).
