

People v. Darnel, No.02PDJ083. 01.22.03. Attorney Regulation. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved the parties' Conditional Admission of Misconduct and suspended Respondent James Darnel, attorney registration number 26381 from the practice of law in the State of Colorado for a period of one year and one day. Respondent, while applying for a driver's license in the State of Virginia, misrepresented his residence, misrepresented that his driver's license had never been revoked and misrepresented that he had not been convicted of any traffic offense in the last ten years when each of those statements was untrue at the time he uttered them and he knew they were untrue. Respondent surrendered the Virginia license a few days thereafter on his own initiative. Respondent was ordered to pay costs of the proceeding.
