

People v. Goluba. 13PDJ071. September 16, 2013. Attorney Regulation. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved a conditional admission of misconduct submitted by the parties and suspended David A. Goluba (Attorney Registration Number 09749) from the practice of law for six months, effective September 16, 2013, with the requirement that he seek reinstatement, if at all, under C.R.C.P. 251.29(c). On April 17, 2013, the Supreme Court of Wisconsin suspended Goluba from the practice of law for six months, with the requirement that he petition for reinstatement. Goluba violated Wisconsin Rules of Professional Conduct SCR 20:1.3 by failing to act with reasonable diligence; SCR 20:1.4(a)(4) by failing to comply with a client's reasonable requests for information; SCR 22.03(2) and 20:8.4(h) by failing to cooperate in the investigation of a grievance; and SCR 20:1.15(b)(1) by failing to hold a client's money in trust separate from his own property. Goluba's misconduct constitutes grounds for the imposition of reciprocal discipline pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.5 and 251.21(a).
