

People v. Kraynak. 12PDJ032. April 13, 2012. Attorney Regulation. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved a Conditional Admission of Misconduct submitted by the parties and suspended Mark Edward Kraynak (Attorney Registration Number 39635) from the practice of law for a period of thirty days, all stayed subject to a two-year period of probation with conditions, effective May 14, 2012. Although Kraynak was successful in representing his client in a collection matter, he failed to place a flat fee received from the client in his COLTAF account and treated the flat fee as earned upon receipt. Kraynak was also convicted of domestic violence and was sentenced to serve a one-year period of probation, to enroll in domestic violence classes, and to undergo an alcohol evaluation. His misconduct constitutes grounds for the imposition of discipline pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.5 and violated Colo. RPC 1.15(a) and 8.4(b).
