

People v. Lemanski, No. 00PDJ086, 11/30/00. Attorney Regulation.

In this reciprocal discipline matter, the Presiding Disciplinary Judge accepted the parties' Conditional Admission of Misconduct and suspended the Respondent, David A. Lemanski, from the practice of law for a period of thirty days. Respondent was suspended for thirty days in the State of Iowa for neglecting a legal matter entrusted to him, for failing to promptly disburse and account for client funds held in his trust account, and by failing to respond to inquiries from the Iowa disciplinary board. Respondent was ordered to pay the costs of the proceedings.
