

People v. Moore. 13PDJ022. March 1, 2013. Attorney Regulation. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved a conditional admission of misconduct submitted by the parties and suspended Roger Harned Moore (Attorney Registration Number 19565), for ninety days, all stayed upon successful completion of a one-year period of probation, with conditions, effective March 1, 2013. On October 12, 2011, Moore was sentenced to one year of unsupervised probation with a suspended jail sentence of 180 days. He was also ordered to complete anger management and one hundred hours of public service for his conviction of Public Buildings-Impeding a Public Official, a class two misdemeanor offense pursuant to C.R.S. section 18-9-110(2). Moore timely reported his conviction to the Office of Attorney Regulation and completed all conditions of his unsupervised probation. When Moore applied for readmission to bar of the District of Columbia in 2009, however, his application for readmission contained omissions. His misconduct constitutes grounds for the imposition of reciprocal discipline pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.5 and violated Colo. RPC 8.1(b) and 8.4(b).
