

People v. Shaman. 07PDJ036. June 19, 2007. Attorney Regulation. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved a Conditional Admission of Misconduct submitted by the parties and suspended Theodore Roberts Shaman (Attorney Registration No. 06016) from the practice of law for a period of two years, effective June 19, 2007. On November 5, 1997, Respondent was indefinitely suspended from the practice of law by the Supreme Court of Ohio for various violations of rules applicable to lawyers licensed in Ohio, including dishonesty. As a result, he could not apply for reinstatement in Ohio for a minimum of two years. There is evidence that Respondent notified the Colorado Supreme Court of his Ohio suspension by letter dated November 25, 1997. However, for some unknown reason, the Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel did not learn of the Ohio suspension until September 2006. Respondent's misconduct constituted grounds for the imposition of reciprocal discipline pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.21(d).
