

People v. Webb. 11PDJ090. December 6, 2011. Attorney Regulation. The Presiding Disciplinary Judge approved a Conditional Admission of Misconduct submitted by the parties and suspended Glenn Lowell Webb (Attorney Registration Number 20023) for three months with conditions, effective January 7, 2012. Webb invoiced and received payment from his client for two patent applications. Webb deposited this money in his office account, failed to pay the filing fee for the two applications, and the two applications were deemed abandoned. Webb also failed to pay for and invoice his client for maintenance fees required for his clients' other patents. As a result, some of those patents were deemed abandoned. In another matter, Webb failed to respond to a request for additional information from the United States Patent and Trademark Office, resulting in the abandonment of another patent application. His misconduct constitutes grounds for the imposition of discipline pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.5 and violated Colo. RPC 1.3 and 1.15(b).
